

LOUISIANA HOT SAUCE

Not too hot, not too mild – and good for what ails you. Louisiana Hot Sauce is great as a condiment on dozens of foods or in your favorite recipes. Our cayenne chile peppers are sun-ripened, carefully selected, handpicked, and aged for at least one year. This versatile condiment can pep up almost any meal. Drizzle it on dogs, splash it on burgers, dash it on eggs, shake it on fries, sprinkle it into stews and soups, rub it on meats and fish, or add it to casseroles and gravies – let your creativity and taste buds run wild. There's only one ORIGINAL Louisiana Hot Sauce, and this is it!

MORE THAN JUST THE “ORIGINAL”

In addition to our Original Louisiana Hot Sauce - which is a cayenne pepper based hot sauce - our sauce masters also blend a number of “Flavored Hot Sauces” using other pepper varieties as well as garlic, onions, and more. Each flavor has its own unique spiciness in addition to a flavor profile designed to tempt the palates of spicy food lovers.

A good quality sauce begins with excellent peppers, picked at their prime and blended under the most carefully controlled conditions. Annually, some 18 million pounds of peppers are processed. Following fermentation, the pepper mash is aged 12 months or longer before final processing - then placed in containers that range in size from a two-ounce bottle to a 6,000-gallon tanker truck.
